Congratulations to David Treat & Carrie Holloway

For their recent trial victory on behalf of a Fortune 500 Insurance and Surety Company.

Plaintiffs, Jack Lopez and Incore, Inc., sued this major client of the firm for fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, tortious interference with contract, violations of the DTPA, and negligence.

The litigation lasted over 5 years. Plaintiffs sought to recover $17,000,000 in actual and punitive damages, and LST defeated many of Plaintiffs' claims via summary judgment.

After a two week trial in the 73rd Judicial District Court of Bexar County, the jury rendered a defense verdict on March 6, 2015.

The jury found no liability and zero damages.
